"...some of the band's most adventurous musical statements in years..." - Rolling Stone

"Integrity Blues is, all at once, classic Jimmy Eat World and the next evolution. It's the perfect encapsulation of where they've been, where they are and where they're going. It's their best work since 2004's Futures." - Alternative Press

(June 29, 2017 – Toronto, ON) – Jimmy Eat World releases a new video today for their song “Get Right” off their critically acclaimed ninth studio Integrity Blues available via Dine Alone Records (Canada). The funky visual perfectly captures the energy of the song with dark effects set over the band’s passionate performance. Click here to watch.

The critically acclaimed track “Get Right” currently has over 8.4 million streams across all streaming platforms and has received significant press coverage from various outlets, including Vulture who stated that it has “all the good parts of the early 2000s” and Nylon who said, “There’s a lot of angst loaded on this track, and it feels so good.”

Jimmy Eat World embarks on a North American tour with alt-rock group Incubus July 6, with a stop in Toronto on July 22 at Budweiser Stage. On previous shows, Consequence of Sound stated, “...as a live band, they aim to please,” while Brooklyn Vegan claimed that the band “...sounded tight as could be, and the crowd ate up just about every second of it.” For tickets, please visit <http://www.livenation.com/artists/41749/jimmy-eat-world>.
