CANADIAN TOUR DATES ANNOUNCED

"If you're looking for a band that bleeds every last drop of themselves into their work, you've found them in Hillsburn." - Kerry Martin [CBC]

"Intense and goosebump inducing." - Stephanie Johns [The Coast]

(November 22, 2017) – Indie-folk quintet Hillsburn have released “Bad Behaviours”, the second single from their forthcoming album, The Wilder Beyond out February 2. The song is an understated anthem, political but warmly so. It recognizes the softening that comes with age while urging us to keep pushing to make things better. The music video is the product of an in-house collaboration by the quintet. Conceived by drummer Clare Macdonald, directed by Macdonald and Aarntzen, and shot and edited by Aarntzen, it features Hillsburn singing and dancing along to the track at locations throughout their home city of Halifax, Nova Scotia. Watch + Share the video HERE.

The band had this to share about the inspiration of the song:

"Two people of the same gender can kiss in the street today in Halifax," says singer Paul Aarntzen, "probably without fear of ridicule or reprisal. Probably. But probably isn't good enough. 'Bad Behaviours' is about acknowledging that getting us to a state of 'probably' took a lot of courage by a lot of people. And it's about remembering to keep fighting until we all feel completely safe loving whomever we choose."

Hillsburn features Paul Aarntzen (vox/guitar), Rosanna Burrill (vox/violin), Clayton Burrill (vox/guitar), and Jackson Fairfax-Perry (piano/keys) and Clare Macdonald (percussionist). For more information on Hillsburn, visit: <http://www.hillsburn.com/>

More information on the upcoming release will be announced in the coming weeks. Additional Canadian tour dates will be announced soon.
