(June 1, 2018 – Toronto, ON) – Hip Hop/metal outfit POWERFLO has just released their EP Bring That Shit Back! digitally via New Damage Records worldwide. Mastered by Maor Appelbaum at Maor Appelbaum Mastering in California, the 8-track EP features a cover of Bob Marley’s 1973 classic “Get Up Stand Up” and a brand new title track, plus remixes of their first and most recent single, “Where I Stay” and “The Grind,” from their debut full-length. Powerflo just released a new video for “The Grind” and partnered with INKED Magazine to premiere with Billy Graziadei telling the mag, “We’ve been in the studio and we’re going to hit Europe for the first time. We BEEN stayin’ on that grind.”

The EP hits digital retailers just a week before the band embarks on their first ever European tour. They kick off in the UK to play the Download Festival and make their way to Germany, Austria, France, Spain and more before wrapped things back up in the UK on July 11. A full track listing and all tour dates are listed below.

Melding hip-hop, metal, punk, and rock into a potent offering, Powerflo lives up to its name. The vision of Grammy-Award-nominated multiplatinum Cypress Hill rapper Sen Dog, downset guitarist Rogelio “Roy” Lozano, Biohazard vocalist and guitarist Billy Graziadei, ex-Fear Factory bassist Christian Olde Wolbers, and Worst drummer Fernando Schaefer, Powerflo draws on their powerhouse resume to collectively smash boundaries with POWERFLO

The origins of Powerflo can be traced back over more than two decades as the members of the band would collaborate on numerous occasions. In addition to both Cypress Hill and Biohazard appearing on the landmark platinum-selling Judgment Night Soundtrack, Sen Dog delivered a cameo on Biohazard’s STATE OF THE WORLD ADDRESS in 1993, while Christian both guested on Cypress Hill’s chart-topping 2000 double-album SKULLS & BONES, which Roy also guested on, and 2001’s STONE RAIDERS in addition to performing with the group countless times. In 2015, longtime friend Roy played demos for Sen on a ride to the airport. The music immediately spoke to the rapper and thus Powerflo was born.
