“Outrage!”...enhances DFA’s status as the world’s premier purveyors of hard rock that moves the hips.” – Clash (9/10)

“Death From Above manages to further the rawness and execution they’ve become so mythical for.” – Line Of Best Fit (8/10)

“Outrageously good third album” – Kerrang! (8/10)

“really loud rock n roll music – a simple pleasure in complicated times...Death From Above are on tight-as-a-nut form, fusing brutal rock ‘n’ roll attitude to their hip-shaking dance-rock tendencies in style.” – NME

(June 22, 2018 - Toronto, ON) Today, rock duo Death From Above release their live video for “Holy Books (Live In Toronto)”. The live video was filmed at The Phoenix Concert Theatre in their hometown of Toronto, where the band capped off their Fall North American tour with two sweaty, energetic back-to-back SOLD OUT nights, performing to over 3000+ people. The video was shot by Korey Schaefer, and edited by the band’s own Sebastien Grainger showing us another way Death From Above are keeping it D.I.Y. in the new millennium. Previously, fans got a taste of Grainger’s artistic visual skills on their earlier released video for “Never Swim Alone”, which he directed and edited. The video for “Holy Books (Live in Toronto)” perfectly captures the duo’s powerful and dynamic live show and is available on Spotify and YouTube now.

Stream, grab, share the video now on Spotify ‘Rock This’ Playlist & YouTube

“Holy Books” is off Sebastien Grainger and Jesse F. Keeler’s third full-length album Outrage! Is Now (Last GangeOne). The album also features “Freeze Me” and their current single “Caught Up”. Death From Above is on tour now playing festivals and show across Europe. See a full list of dates below.
