(Toronto, ON - October 31, 2018) - Moneen have announced a very special 15th Anniversary show to commemorate the release of their acclaimed 2003 sophomore LP, Are We Really Happy With Who We Are Right Now? Moneen is teaming up with Homesick Toronto who will be celebrating their 3rd Anniversary of Canada's largest Emo Night Dance Party on January 5, 2019 at the Phoenix Concert Theatre in Toronto. Tickets will be on sale as of Friday, November 2 at NOON ET HERE.

To celebrate the anniversary of Are We Really Happy With Who We Are Right Now?, Moneen and Dine Alone Records have teamed up to resurrect the out of print vinyl. The 15th anniversary addition will be pressed on double red cloud vinyl housed in a deluxe mirror board gatefold jacket, limited to 300 copies and available for purchase for the first time at the show on January 5.

It's been 19 years since Moneen captured the ear of indie-lovers with the seeming dichotomy of their sound mixing catchy, upbeat rock instrumentation with stirring melodies and poetic, thought-provoking lyrics. Since the Brampton-based band's first EP, Smaller Chairs For The Early 1900s (1999) Moneen toured relentlessly, sharing stages with the likes of Muse, Billy Talent and Alexisonfire, earning a fiercely dedicated fan base in the process. Said Exclaim! of Moneen's blistering Christmas performance in 2010 at The Horseshoe Tavern, "Hundreds of fans elbowed and fought to get as close to the front as possible, and then went in an absolute frenzy hearing the first keyboard note.." CityNews also praised the show, "an epic night to be remembered by the lucky ones who actually made it inside." Don't miss Moneen at the Phoenix, January 9, 2019.
