(NOVEMBER 16, 2018 – Toronto, ON) – Acclaimed pop-punk outfit SEAWAY debut a new music video for their unreleased B-side track “Blur” via Alternative Press. The track is available now to purchase and stream here: <http://smarturl.it/SeawayBlur>. The band kicked off their “American Vacation Tour” with Trophy Eyes, Microwave, Can't Swim and Hot Mulligan last night in Los Angeles, CA, and will make one Canadian stop in Toronto on December 2 at The Opera House. For a complete list of dates, please see below. Tickets for the tour are on sale now at seawayband.com.

“We wrote and recorded ‘Blur’ at the same time we wrote and recorded Vacation, but when it came time to put everything together we just felt like it didn’t fit with the rest of the songs. However, this track freaking rocks...so it only made sense to save it for a later release. The song is basically just about dealing with the crazy ride of being away from home all the time and the toll that takes on you mentally. We love what we do and we know how lucky we are, but sometimes it's easy to question everything and that's what this is all about." - Seaway

Seaway's surprise new B-side from their Vacation album session will be included on an upcoming compilation album that's due out in 2019.

Since forming in 2011, SEAWAY has become known for their highly infectious brand of pop punk – one that strikes the perfect balance between the two styles and recalls a time when the genre centred on having fun. Comprised of Ryan Locke (vocals), Patrick Carleton (guitar, vocals), Ken Taylor (drums), Adam Shoji (bass), and Andrew Eichinger (guitar), to date, the band has released three full-length LP's, three EP's and has toured extensively in North America and the UK.
